

CONSERVATION ARBORICULTURE REFERENCES

ANSI A300 (Part 1)- Pruning - 2001, 2008, 2017 and newest revision soon to be released – Compare the changes, especially in the topping, heading and reduction categories.

“The Secret Life of Trees”, Colin Trudge.

“The Wild Trees”, Richard Preston

“Live Oaking, Southern Timber for Tall Ships”, Virginia Steele Wood

Arboriculture & Urban Forestry 2007 33(5):360-366, Grabosky and Gilman, Response of Two Oak Species to Reduction Pruning Cuts

Arborist News, June, 2011, Learning From Old Trees, Artists and Dead Poets, Neville Fay

Arborist News, April 2015, Biology and Assessment of Callus and Woundwood.

Arborist News, February 2015, Recognizing and Understanding Tree Response

Proceedings of the 86th Annual ISA Conference, Tuesday, July 27, 2010, Veteran Tree Management Session:

Using Extraordinary Measures to Preserve Structurally-Deficient Heritage Trees, Torrey Young.

UK Perspective of Mature and Veteran Tree Management, Colin Bashford.

Conservation Arboriculture, Philip Van Wassener.

Restoring trees after storms, Ed Gilman TreesSC 2015

Veteran Tree Initiative, www.treeworks.co.uk

Ancient Tree Forum, www.ancienttreeforum.co.uk

Fay, N. (2002), Environmental Arboriculture, Tree Ecology & Veteran Tree Management. The Arboricultural Journal, 26 (3). 213 – 238.

Arboricultural Journal, International Journal of Urban Forestry, Volume 44, 2022-Issue 3, Peter Del Tredici; Endocormic roots: transforming death into life.